The Devastating Consequences of Medicaid Cuts

Chairman Bob Casey, Senate Committee on Aging

More than 1 million Connecticut residents rely on Medicaid & CHIP

Cuts to Medicaid would disproportionately hurt children, older adults, people with disabilities, and people of color by eliminating their health care access and coverage.

Cutting Care for Children Nearly 97% of eligible children in Connecticut are supported by Medicaid and/or CHIP.² Cuts would disproportionately

Increasing Disparities for Communities of Color

Medicaid covers nearly 63% of adults of color in Connecticut ages 18-65.[°]A decrease in Medicaid funding would directly impact access to the communities that need it the most.

Cuts to Medicare Beneficiaries

Cuts to Medicaid could impact nearly 190,200 dually-eligible Connecticut residents who rely on the program to help pay their Medicare premiums and co-pays.⁷

Blocking Access for Pregnant Women and Newborns

More than 12,900 births (36%) in Connecticut per year are covered by Medicaid. A cut to Medicaid would prevent mothers from obtaining the care they need.

Curbing Health Care Access for People with Disabilities

Medicaid covers 45% of nonelderly adults with disabilities nationwide, roughly 10 million people.⁶ They depend on Medicaid for services in order to thrive in their communities.

Disrupting Nursing Home Care

Cuts to Medicaid could disrupt care for 68% of nursing home residents in Connecticut who use Medicaid as their primary payer to stay in a nursing facility.⁸

House Republicans' Proposed Cuts Threaten Care For Americans At Risk

The House Republicans' bill puts more than 311,500 Connecticut residents at risk of losing Medicaid coverage and could lead to gaps in health care coverage and undermine family economic security.⁹
